

AFFIDAVIT OF INDIVIDUAL DELIVERING ABSENTEE BALLOT APPLICATION TO COUNTY

State Form 52411 (9-05)
Indiana Election Commission (IC 3-11-4-2)

(ABS-17)

INSTRUCTIONS: (NOTE: An employee of the United States Postal Service or an employee of a bonded courier company is not required to file this affidavit if the person is delivering an absentee ballot application as part of their duties with the Postal Service or the courier company). Any other person who receives a completed absentee ballot application from the individual who applied for the absentee ballot is required by state law to file that application with the county election board not later than noon 7 days after the person receives the application (or the deadline set by Indiana law to file the application), whichever occurs first.

IF MORE THAN ONE ABSENTEE BALLOT APPLICATION IS SUBMITTED by this person to the county election board at the same time, the person may complete one copy of this affidavit. The county election board must identify each application attached to this affidavit and may do so under "Tracking Information" below.
